ANZAC Day Services
Marlborough Anzac Day dawn service this year falls on Friday, 25 April. Our school has been invited to join the march. Students need to wear their school uniform, including their hat. We would like as many children as possible to participate in the march. We have been asked to assemble at 4.15am outside Marlborough Motors. The March will finish at the town memorial for the dawn service.

Anzac Day is a significant event in the School community’s calendar. This year the school will be holding an Anzac Day Commemoration on Thursday 24 April starting at 2pm. The ceremony is an important way in which our school community commemorates Anzac Day and the service of our Defence Forces both in the past and present. You are welcome to join us.
Flowers for Anzac Day Wreath
Mrs Lisle is working with students on a school wreath to be presented at the dawn service. We would ask if you could assist her by providing some flowers on Thursday 24th April.

NAPLAN
NAPLAN assesses the literacy and numeracy skills of students across Australia in Years 3, 5, 7, and 9 annually in May. NAPLAN is made up of tests in five areas - reading, writing, spelling, grammar and punctuation and numeracy. A report of student performance is issued later in the year. Please note the dates below for each of the tests.

At Marlborough State School, students are working regularly with NAPLAN style questions and problems as part of the daily teaching of the Australian Curriculum in English and Maths. Regular opportunities leading up to NAPLAN for students to improve test taking skills by developing familiarity with formats, procedures and questioning are also utilised.

Our students in Years 3, 5 and 7 have already had the chance to participate in timed practice tests. This is particularly important for Year 3 students taking the tests for the first time. Information about student performance is gained from these tests to inform and target further teaching and learning of the curriculum, and to provide feedback to students about their learning.

Excellent information and tips about helping your child in literacy and numeracy and examples of NAPLAN test formats are available on the NAPLAN website at http://www.nap.edu.au/. The ‘helping your child at school’ information can be accessed in multiple languages and is supported by video clips. Example NAPLAN tests are available in all test areas for each year level. If you have further questions about your child’s preparation for NAPLAN, please organise a time to speak with their teacher.

Heart Attack

A heart attack occurs when there is a blockage of blood supply to the heart. Pain is normally felt in the centre of the chest behind the breastbone, lasting for 10 minutes or more. The pain may spread to the arms, shoulders, neck and jaw. The casualty may suddenly collapse if the heart stops beating (called cardiac arrest).

If cardiac arrest occurs the casualty will need cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

Treatment for heart attack

• Call Triple Zero (000) for an ambulance immediately.
• Have the casualty stop all physical activity and rest.
• Remain calm and provide reassurance to the casualty.
• If the casualty is conscious, place them in a position of comfort (usually sitting up to assist with breathing). The casualty should be placed on the floor, sitting against a wall if possible, in order to avoid injuries if they collapse suddenly.
• Assist the casualty to take any prescribed chest pain medication (if applicable).
• Keep the casualty calm.
• Monitor and record the casualty’s pulse and breathing.
• If the casualty is unconscious, check if their airway is clear and if they are breathing. If the casualty is not breathing normally, commence CPR immediately.

Queensland Ambulance Service (QAS) encourages you to be prepared for an emergency. Enrol in a QAS first aid course to learn vital life-saving first aid skills.

Enquire online at www.ambulance.qld.gov.au or call 13 QGOV (13 74 68)

In the next issue I will have an article about snake bites and management.

Heart Attack
A heart attack occurs when there is a blockage of blood supply to the heart. Pain is normally felt in the centre of the chest behind the breastbone, lasting for 10 minutes or more. The pain may spread to the arms, shoulders, neck and jaw. The casualty may suddenly collapse if the heart stops beating (called cardiac arrest). If cardiac arrest occurs the casualty will need cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

Treatment for heart attack
• Call Triple Zero (000) for an ambulance immediately.
• Have the casualty stop all physical activity and rest.
• Remain calm and provide reassurance to the casualty.
• If the casualty is conscious, place them in a position of comfort (usually sitting up to assist with breathing). The casualty should be placed on the floor, sitting against a wall if possible, in order to avoid injuries if they collapse suddenly.
• Assist the casualty to take any prescribed chest pain medication (if applicable).
• Keep the casualty calm.
• Monitor and record the casualty’s pulse and breathing.
• If the casualty is unconscious, check if their airway is clear and if they are breathing. If the casualty is not breathing normally, commence CPR immediately.

Queensland Ambulance Service (QAS) encourages you to be prepared for an emergency. Enrol in a QAS first aid course to learn vital life-saving first aid skills.

ANZAC Day Services
Marlborough Anzac Day dawn service this year falls on Friday, 25 April. Our school has been invited to join the march. Students need to wear their school uniform, including their hat. We would like as many children as possible to participate in the march. We have been asked to assemble at 4.15am outside Marlborough Motors. The March will finish at the town memorial for the dawn service.

Anzac Day is a significant event in the School community's calendar. This year the school will be holding an Anzac Day Commemoration on Thursday 24 April starting at 2pm. The ceremony is an important way in which our school community commemorates Anzac Day and the service of our Defence Forces both in the past and present. You are welcome to join us.

NAPLAN
NAPLAN assesses the literacy and numeracy skills of students across Australia in Years 3, 5, 7, and 9 annually in May. NAPLAN is made up of tests in five areas - reading, writing, spelling, grammar and punctuation and numeracy. A report of student performance is issued later in the year. Please note the dates below for each of the tests.

At Marlborough State School, students are working regularly with NAPLAN style questions and problems as part of the daily teaching of the Australian Curriculum in English and Maths. Regular opportunities leading up to NAPLAN for students to improve test taking skills by developing familiarity with formats, procedures and questioning are also utilised.

Our students in Years 3, 5 and 7 have already had the chance to participate in timed practice tests. This is particularly important for Year 3 students taking the tests for the first time. Information about student performance is gained from these tests to inform and target further teaching and learning of the curriculum, and to provide feedback to students about their learning.

Excellent information and tips about helping your child in literacy and numeracy and examples of NAPLAN test formats are available on the NAPLAN website at http://www.nap.edu.au/. The ‘helping your child at school’ information can be accessed in multiple languages and is supported by video clips. Example NAPLAN tests are available in all test areas for each year level. If you have further questions about your child’s preparation for NAPLAN, please organise a time to speak with their teacher.

IT’S NOT ABOUT BEING THE BEST

Welcome to the first Queensland Ambulance snippet in your local school newsletter. As the Officer in Charge for Qld Ambulance Service in Marlborough I will endeavour to include some basic first aid information on a regular basis. If you have any special requests please email or phone.

I will be holding an Applied First Aid Course in the near future so watch this space.

Heart Attack

A heart attack occurs when there is a blockage of blood supply to the heart. Pain is normally felt in the centre of the chest behind the breastbone, lasting for 10 minutes or more. The pain may spread to the arms, shoulders, neck and jaw. The casualty may suddenly collapse if the heart stops beating (called cardiac arrest). If cardiac arrest occurs the casualty will need cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

Treatment for heart attack

- Call Triple Zero (000) for an ambulance immediately.
- Have the casualty stop all physical activity and rest.
- Remain calm and provide reassurance to the casualty.
- If the casualty is conscious, place them in a position of comfort (usually sitting up to assist with breathing). The casualty should be placed on the floor, sitting against a wall if possible, in order to avoid injuries if they collapse suddenly.
- Assist the casualty to take any prescribed chest pain medication (if applicable).
- Keep the casualty calm.
- Monitor and record the casualty’s pulse and breathing.
- If the casualty is unconscious, check if their airway is clear and if they are breathing. If the casualty is not breathing normally, commence CPR immediately.

Queensland Ambulance Service (QAS) encourages you to be prepared for an emergency. Enrol in a QAS first aid course to learn vital life-saving first aid skills.

Enquire online at www.ambulance.qld.gov.au or call 13 QGOV (13 74 68)

In the next issue I will have an article about snake bites and management.

ANZAC Day Services

Marlborough Anzac Day dawn service this year falls on Friday, 25 April. Our school has been invited to join the march. Students need to wear their school uniform, including their hat. We would like as many children as possible to participate in the march. We have been asked to assemble at 4.15am outside Marlborough Motors. The March will finish at the town memorial for the dawn service.

Anzac Day is a significant event in the School community’s calendar. This year the school will be holding an Anzac Day Commemoration on Thursday 24 April starting at 2pm. The ceremony is an important way in which our school community commemorates Anzac Day and the service of our Defence Forces both in the past and present. You are welcome to join us.
Flowers for Anzac Day Wreath
Mrs Lisle is working with students on a school wreath to be presented at the dawn service. We would ask if you could assist her by providing some flowers on Thursday 24th April.

NAPLAN
NAPLAN assesses the literacy and numeracy skills of students across Australia in Years 3, 5, 7, and 9 annually in May. NAPLAN is made up of tests in five areas - reading, writing, spelling, grammar and punctuation and numeracy. A report of student performance is issued later in the year. Please note the dates below for each of the tests.

At Marlborough State School, students are working regularly with NAPLAN style questions and problems as part of the daily teaching of the Australian Curriculum in English and Maths. Regular opportunities leading up to NAPLAN for students to improve test taking skills by developing familiarity with formats, procedures and questioning are also utilised.

Our students in Years 3, 5 and 7 have already had the chance to participate in timed practice tests. This is particularly important for Year 3 students taking the tests for the first time. Information about student performance is gained from these tests to inform and target further teaching and learning of the curriculum, and to provide feedback to students about their learning.

Excellent information and tips about helping your child in literacy and numeracy and examples of NAPLAN test formats are available on the NAPLAN website at http://www.nap.edu.au/. The ‘helping your child at school’ information can be accessed in multiple languages and is supported by video clips. Example NAPLAN tests are available in all test areas for each year level. If you have further questions about your child’s preparation for NAPLAN, please organise a time to speak with their teacher.

NAPLAN
NAPLAN assesses the literacy and numeracy skills of students across Australia in Years 3, 5, 7, and 9 annually in May. NAPLAN is made up of tests in five areas - reading, writing, spelling, grammar and punctuation and numeracy. A report of student performance is issued later in the year. Please note the dates below for each of the tests.

At Marlborough State School, students are working regularly with NAPLAN style questions and problems as part of the daily teaching of the Australian Curriculum in English and Maths. Regular opportunities leading up to NAPLAN for students to improve test taking skills by developing familiarity with formats, procedures and questioning are also utilised.

Our students in Years 3, 5 and 7 have already had the chance to participate in timed practice tests. This is particularly important for Year 3 students taking the tests for the first time. Information about student performance is gained from these tests to inform and target further teaching and learning of the curriculum, and to provide feedback to students about their learning.

Excellent information and tips about helping your child in literacy and numeracy and examples of NAPLAN test formats are available on the NAPLAN website at http://www.nap.edu.au/. The ‘helping your child at school’ information can be accessed in multiple languages and is supported by video clips. Example NAPLAN tests are available in all test areas for each year level. If you have further questions about your child’s preparation for NAPLAN, please organise a time to speak with their teacher.

Heart Attack
A heart attack occurs when there is a blockage of blood supply to the heart. Pain is normally felt in the centre of the chest behind the breastbone, lasting for 10 minutes or more. The pain may spread to the arms, shoulders, neck and jaw. The casualty may suddenly collapse if the heart stops beating (called cardiac arrest). If cardiac arrest occurs the casualty will need cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

Treatment for heart attack
- Call Triple Zero (000) for an ambulance immediately.
- Have the casualty stop all physical activity and rest.
- Remain calm and provide reassurance to the casualty.
- If the casualty is conscious, place them in a position of comfort (usually sitting up to assist with breathing). The casualty should be placed on the floor, sitting against a wall if possible, in order to avoid injuries if they collapse suddenly.
- Assist the casualty to take any prescribed chest pain medication (if applicable).
- Keep the casualty calm.
- Monitor and record the casualty’s pulse and breathing.
- If the casualty is unconscious, check if their airway is clear and if they are breathing. If the casualty is not breathing normally, commence CPR immediately.

Queensland Ambulance Service (QAS) encourages you to be prepared for an emergency. Enrol in a QAS first aid course to learn vital life-saving first aid skills.

ANZAC Day Services
Marlborough Anzac Day dawn service this year falls on Friday, 25 April. Our school has been invited to join the march. Students need to wear their school uniform, including their hat. We would like as many children as possible to participate in the march. We have been asked to assemble at 4.15am outside Marlborough Motors. The March will finish at the town memorial for the dawn service.

Anzac Day is a significant event in the School community’s calendar. This year the school will be holding an Anzac Day Commemoration on Thursday 24 April starting at 2pm. The ceremony is an important way in which our school community commemorates Anzac Day and the service of our Defence Forces both in the past and present. You are welcome to join us.
Flowers for Anzac Day Wreath
Mrs Lisle is working with students on a school wreath to be presented at the dawn service. We would ask if you could assist her by providing some flowers on Thursday 24th April.

NAPLAN
NAPLAN assesses the literacy and numeracy skills of students across Australia in Years 3, 5, 7, and 9 annually in May. NAPLAN is made up of tests in five areas - reading, writing, spelling, grammar and punctuation and numeracy. A report of student performance is issued later in the year. Please note the dates below for each of the tests.

At Marlborough State School, students are working regularly with NAPLAN style questions and problems as part of the daily teaching of the Australian Curriculum in English and Maths. Regular opportunities leading up to NAPLAN for students to improve test taking skills by developing familiarity with formats, procedures and questioning are also utilised.

Our students in Years 3, 5 and 7 have already had the chance to participate in timed practice tests. This is particularly important for Year 3 students taking the tests for the first time. Information about student performance is gained from these tests to inform and target further teaching and learning of the curriculum, and to provide feedback to students about their learning.

Excellent information and tips about helping your child in literacy and numeracy and examples of NAPLAN test formats are available on the NAPLAN website at http://www.nap.edu.au/. The ‘helping your child at school’ information can be accessed in multiple languages and is supported by video clips. Example NAPLAN tests are available in all test areas for each year level. If you have further questions about your child’s preparation for NAPLAN, please organise a time to speak with their teacher.

Heart Attack
A heart attack occurs when there is a blockage of blood supply to the heart. Pain is normally felt in the centre of the chest behind the breastbone, lasting for 10 minutes or more. The pain may spread to the arms, shoulders, neck and jaw. The casualty may suddenly collapse if the heart stops beating (called cardiac arrest). If cardiac arrest occurs the casualty will need cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

Treatment for heart attack
• Call Triple Zero (000) for an ambulance immediately.
• Have the casualty stop all physical activity and rest.
• Remain calm and provide reassurance to the casualty.
• If the casualty is conscious, place them in a position of comfort (usually sitting up to assist with breathing). The casualty should be placed on the floor, sitting against a wall if possible, in order to avoid injuries if they collapse suddenly.
• Assist the casualty to take any prescribed chest pain medication (if applicable).
• Keep the casualty calm.
• Monitor and record the casualty’s pulse and breathing.
• If the casualty is unconscious, check if their airway is clear and if they are breathing. If the casualty is not breathing normally, commence CPR immediately.

Queensland Ambulance Service (QAS) encourages you to be prepared for an emergency. Enrol in a QAS first aid course to learn vital life-saving first aid skills.

Enquire online at www.ambulance.qld.gov.au or call 13 QGOV (13 74 68)

In the next issue I will have an article about snake bites and management.

ANZAC Day Services
Marlborough Anzac Day dawn service this year falls on Friday, 25 April. Our school has been invited to join the march. Students need to wear their school uniform, including their hat. We would like as many children as possible to participate in the march. We have been asked to assemble at 4.15am outside Marlborough Motors. The March will finish at the town memorial for the dawn service.

Anzac Day is a significant event in the School community’s calendar. This year the school will be holding an Anzac Day Commemoration on Thursday 24 April starting at 2pm. The ceremony is an important way in which our school community commemorates Anzac Day and the service of our Defence Forces both in the past and present. You are welcome to join us.
Flowers for Anzac Day Wreath
Mrs Lisle is working with students on a school wreath to be presented at the dawn service. We would ask if you could assist her by providing some flowers on Thursday 24th April.

NAPLAN
NAPLAN assesses the literacy and numeracy skills of students across Australia in Years 3, 5, 7, and 9 annually in May. NAPLAN is made up of tests in five areas - reading, writing, spelling, grammar and punctuation and numeracy. A report of student performance is issued later in the year. Please note the dates below for each of the tests.

At Marlborough State School, students are working regularly with NAPLAN style questions and problems as part of the daily teaching of the Australian Curriculum in English and Maths. Regular opportunities leading up to NAPLAN for students to improve test taking skills by developing familiarity with formats, procedures and questioning are also utilised.

Our students in Years 3, 5 and 7 have already had the chance to participate in timed practice tests. This is particularly important for Year 3 students taking the tests for the first time. Information about student performance is gained from these tests to inform and target further teaching and learning of the curriculum, and to provide feedback to students about their learning.

Excellent information and tips about helping your child in literacy and numeracy and examples of NAPLAN test formats are available on the NAPLAN website at http://www.nap.edu.au/. The ‘helping your child at school’ information can be accessed in multiple languages and is supported by video clips. Example NAPLAN tests are available in all test areas for each year level. If you have further questions about your child’s preparation for NAPLAN, please organise a time to speak with their teacher.
