Key Priorities

Reading and Spelling

There are always spelling choices to be made and sometimes the best way to tell if a word is spelt correctly is say, "Does that look right?"

We have been discussing this strategy in class and the children have decided as a collective group that the only way you will learn if something looks right is if you have read the word many times before this reiterates the belief that I am hoping to impart to them that "Reading is the Key to Learning."

Marlborough State School Centenary

Thanks to the ladies who gave up some time on Sunday to start collecting names and addresses for the Centenary. It is an enormous task and I think we made some great gains on Sunday. I know some of you enjoyed catching up with some people from the past.

We now have a fairly complete list of people that attended and worked at Marlborough State School over the past century. If you think you can help us out with addresses of any of the past students or teachers please jot them down and drop them in to the office. It will be greatly appreciated.

Marlborough District Sport Association

Thank you to everyone who has donated to the hamper. It is looking great. The raffle tickets have gone home and are $1 each (you write the name of the person who purchased the ticket on the left ticket and give the right hand ticket to that person. The book with the names and money is then returned to school). If you require more tickets you can pick them up at the office.

Community Notices

Queensland Ambulance

The Ambulance Service is seeking an expression of interest from the community for anyone who would like to participate in a First Aid & CPR course.

We need to know the possible number of people who may want or need a First Aid course, CPR course or CPR Refresher either this year or next.

I appreciate this is short notice but if people could possibly let me know by Wednesday 9th March then that would be greatly appreciated. Please email you interest to:

Robert.Danieletto@ambulance.qld.gov.au OR ljone251@eq.edu.au
